

DR. ROSHAN M

Consultant - Pain Management

Qualification

MBBS | MD | FIAPM | FRGUHS

Overview

Dr. Roshan M is a Consultant in Pain Management in the Department of Pain Management, Manipal Hospitals, Mysore. He comes with advanced and expert knowledge of interventional pain management. Dr. Roshan M holds an MBBS degree from Bidar Institute of Medical Sciences, Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences, Karnataka. After completing his MBBS in 2017, he went on to pursue his post-graduation in MD Anaesthesiology, from Atal Bihari Vajpayee Institute of Medical Sciences & Ram Manohar Lohia Hospital, New Delhi. During his post-graduate years, he underwent extensive training in general anaesthesia, regional anaesthesia, and critical care under eminent faculties in Cardiac and neuroanesthesia. It was during this phase, that Dr. Roshan picked up a special interest towards pain management. With the quest of gaining further knowledge and expertise in pain management, he earned several fellowship degrees in Pain and Palliative Care from Cytecure Hospital, Bengaluru, Interventional Pain & Spine Center, Dwarka, New Delhi, and Chronic Pain & Spine Interventions, IPSC varsity. Dr. Roshan M. possesses a broad range of expertise in pain management with a special interest in minimally invasive interventional pain management and cancer pain management. Oro-facial pain and headaches, USG-guided interventions, and palliative care. He has a compassionate approach and ensures he delivers personalised treatment with the highest standard. He is regarded as the best pain management doctor in Mysore.

Fellowship & Membership

- ISSP

Field of Expertise

- Minimally Invasive Interventional Pain Procedures

Languages Spoken

- Kannada
- English
- Hindi